Anti-Slavery Policy Statement

Modern slavery is a criminal activity and a violation of human rights. The deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain is unacceptable.

SRE has zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking and is committed to ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or in any part of our business.

Commitment

We can confirm that:

1. Within our own business, no relevant offence relating to slavery or human trafficking has been committed.
2. We buy from local and known suppliers or suppliers with a fair-trade certification where possible. We have made enquiries of other businesses that supply directly to us and we are confident that no relevant offence is committed in those businesses.

SRE

Within SRE we have two founder-directors, a Senior Leadership Team of five people, including the two founder-directors, six other consultants, an Office Manager and a part-time Bookkeeper. We are all work in one location, a small village outside Petersfield in Hampshire, UK.

Supply Chain

Being a consultancy, our supply chain consists mainly of suppliers of office furniture and office supplies, the majority of which are registered in the UK.

Where it is reasonably practicable, we ensure that businesses in our supply chain have made and can provide a similar statement relating to slavery and human trafficking.

Responsibility for Reporting Incidents of Slavery

The detection and reporting of slavery is the responsibility of all employees. Any concerns should be raised about any issue or suspicious of modern slavery in any part of of SRE's business or supply chain at the earliest possible stage. Suitable channels of communication by which any suspicion of slavery can be reported confidentially are detailed in our Whistleblowing Procedure, which can be found in the SRE Staff Handbook.
